

POST COVID-19 ADAPTIVE STRATEGIES IN THE MEDITERRANEAN REGION

The meeting aims to investigate how Covid-19 has impacted the world with particular attention to Mediterranean Countries; and how the community of architects reacted and the good practices implemented. We intend to investigate in particular: Complexity teaching architecture online-distance learning assessment • Inspiring best practices in different Mediterranean sections • Housing design development versus Mediterranean societies' lifestyle (the new idea of "Home" versus work / educational places) • Impact by different "National Associations of Architects" in the Mediterranean region to the pandemic situation • A new urban paradigm.
