 AWARDS

ARCHITECTURE OLYMPIADS IN ASIA

Six hundred and fifty-eight tenth to twelfth grade students, 398 from Korea and 260 from Singapore, participated in the 4th International Architectural Olympiad in Asia. This confrontation of projects by high-school students is organised jointly by the UIA Member Sections in Korea and Singapore, along with Hanyang University in Korea (HYU) and the National University of Singapore (NUS).

One of Italo Calvino's 'Invisible cities': Sophronia, the thin city, was chosen as the inspiration for the models these young architects of tomorrow were asked to build. This session's grand prizes were awarded to Moon, Jeong-Im (Republic of Korea) and Liam Yuexin Jolene (Singapore). The projects will be on display at the University of Hanyang on 14 – 23 May 2009.
